Significant events (other than programs)	The Member at Large worked with the co-chairs of the Academic Library Section (ALS) of the New England Library Association (NELA) on programming for the annual conferences. In 2009, the Member at Large served as a contact for one of the four programs ALS offered at NELA. For NELA's upcoming conference in October, 2010, the Member at Large has proposed a speaker to the NELA co-chairs and with the co-chairs approval, invited the speaker. The Member-at-Large will again support and introduce the a speaker at one of the four programs offered by ALS at NELA. The Member at Large encourages Board members to contact their state library schools to promote the Chapter.
